Personal:

Coach McCabe is a retired business owner, school teacher and Athletic Director from the Schodack Central School District. Joe is also retired from the USMC. Coach McCabe served as the Schodack Town Supervisor for one term in 1998 and did an outstanding job. Joe is still very active with the sport of wrestling as he remains on top of his game with the Granby system he has mastered over years and years of training with the legendary Martin family in Virginia. Coach McCabe also served as the Head Coach of Football at Maple Hill and assistant positions with softball. He currently assists with the Freshman football program at Columbia High School.

Coach McCabe enjoys traveling with his wife Evelyn and spending time with his three kids Kelly, Mark and Kristen.
